Next AGM Monday 12 February 2007 – mark your diaries now!

Next meeting - AGM

All Lugarno residents are welcome to attend the Annual General Meeting to be held on February 12 at St Stephens Church Hall (opposite Allwood Crescent) commencing at 8 p.m. We would particularly like to encourage residents with a community spirit to become involved with our Association. A number of long standing executives have indicated they will be standing down from their positions at the end of this year so it provides an excellent opportunity for those who have progressive ideas for improvements to the area to be given their "learners permit". Supper will follow our meeting.

2007 meeting dates

13 August        12 November

Our 2006 year

It is always uplifting to look through the records and remind ourselves what we have been doing during the year. Whilst there have not been any major projects during 2006 we have actively continued in our role of community representation and support. Of note has been the success of our nomination for Hurstville City Council's Citizen of the Year Award for 2007 – Peter Olsen. LPA supported HCC's successful application for a Round 8 Envirofund Grant which will allow Bushcare to carry out important restoration work at Heinrich Reserve. Our successful social evening held in July provided valuable interaction between residents and local business proprietors. The ongoing attendance at our meetings by Kevin Greene is always informative and much appreciated. Our special committee on Webbs Dam will be presenting its proposal to HCC within the month. Details of the proposal will be presented at the AGM.

Communicating with LPA

Thanks must go to local residents Mick Spring for his work in maintaining our website and Pat Abbott for her computer expertise in setting out our Newsletter. Residents are welcome to submit newsworthy items for both these means of communication.

Clean up Australia day

Sunday 4th March is the day to Clean up Australia. At present no sites have been registered in our area. If you have seen any locations in the local area which could do with a clean up please let us know at our AGM or phone 0412 568 236.

Changes at Chivers

Cafe Lugarno, renamed Sienna on Forest by new owners Neall & Anjet, is open Tuesday–Sunday for breakfast, lunch or just coffee/tea with home made goodies. For your
